

Request for PA-SHARE Archaeological Privileges

Please note: All current CRGIS agreements and privileges will be invalid after PA-SHARE's launch.

Archaeological privileges are granted to individuals, based on credentials, and not organizations, companies, or agencies. Please complete the following fields for the person requesting PA-SHARE archaeological privileges.

Access to archaeological location data is available to cultural resource professionals who meet the Secretary of the Interior's Professional Qualification Standards as an archaeologist. This access allows a user to see archaeological site locations and the Pre-Contact Probability Model.

If you do not have CWOPA (Commonwealth of Pennsylvania) credentials, complete this form after you have registered for a Keystone Login account. Once a completed form has been received, your request will be reviewed and processed, and you will be notified by the PA SHPO when/if archaeological privileges are granted.

Users with archaeological privileges will be required to agree to the following PA-SHARE conditions of use:

- Archaeological site location data are restricted and therefore privileges will be revoked if:
 - access is shared, and/or
 - site location data is shared with third parties without permission of the PA SHPO.
- Acknowledgement that PA-SHARE serves as a publishing platform for the public records of the Pennsylvania State Historic Preservation Office (PA SHPO). Data in PA-SHARE are reflective of the quality of the data collected over decades and from a variety of sources. PA-SHARE is an ongoing initiative, and tables and associated data will undergo staged enhancements and constant updating.
- Acknowledgement of PA-SHARE Data Quality Statement.
- Not all site locations are indicative of confirmed site boundaries. Site location information should not be used for engineering purposes without field verification.

By signing and dating this form, you acknowledge that you have read and agree to PA-SHARE Conditions of Use and Data Quality Statement.
